Young Man Placed Under Arrest.

Conflicting Statements as to Sensational Affair.

Miss Emma Altenberg, an American Cereal Co. employe, has for some time had a room at a house occupied by Armo Emmerson, aged 28, a clerk for the M. O'Neil & Co., and his wife and two children, on West North st. Now Enamerson, who came to Akron from down Holmes county way, some time ago to earn money to pursue his theo Miss Altenberg. Mrs. Emmerson and children are, and have been out of town, for several days.

The neighborhood of Emmerson home was startled by a scream soon there had been a man in her room rose bush, and picking it up, found it sprayer. Thereupon Miss Altenberg himself admitted this when Policeman Hieber had taken him to the City building. The young man's story is that he sprayed chloroform under the door of Miss Altenberg's room, as he suspected that some one besides the young woman was there, and wished to find out about it. Miss Altenberg Evans, Frank says that chloroform was sprayed upon Farbush, A. E. posed of. Emmerson is a bright, incelligent fellow, and bears a good name, Miss Altenberg is likewise an Frase, Williard, excellent young woman.
